One Hundred Thousand Dollar Steal.

After a pursuit of four weeks by the police of three cities, central office detectives, in New York, aided by operatives of a private agency and Detective Lawrence, of Minneapolis, arrested Thomas J. Wainwright, describing himself as a lawyer of Boston, who is charged with robbing the residence of Dr. Nicolas J. Pinault, of Minneapolis, of jewelry, silverware, pictures, and securities to the value of $100,000. The police say that Wainwright, who is twenty-eight years old, and apparently a man of excellent education, is known by a dozen aliases, and is one of the most accomplished criminals in the country.
Dr. Pinault is one of the wealthiest citizens of Minneapolis. Dr. Pinault usually spends his winters in Europe or in the South.

Just before starting for Pass Christian, Miss., last winter, the doctor engaged as caretaker of his Minneapolis home a young man, who said that he was Thomas J. Wainwright, and that he was a lawyer temporarily out of practice.
Wainwright's credentials were satisfactory, and Dr. Pinault turned his mansion and its valuable contents over to him without hesitation. Then the Pinault family departed for the south.
Toward the end of last February, Dr.
Pinault was astonished to receive from his Minneapolis bankers a letter asking why it was that he wanted to sell certain valuable stocks and bonds that had just been offered through a Minneapolis firm of brokers. The doctor knew that he had left the securities safely locked up in his safe deposit vault and he started at once for Minneapolis to investigate.

There he learned that his caretaker had disappeared, and with him practically everything of value in the Pinault mansion as well as the contents of the doctor's safe in the deposit vault.

Cardinal Gibbons's Sermon.

Cardinal Gibbons preached his monthly sermon to a large congregation at the Baltimore Cathedral last Sunday morning. He took the study and imitation of Christ as the subject of his discourse.
His text was: "Which of you shall convict me of sin?" (John, viii, 46.)

The Cardinal among other things said:
"Never could Moses or the prophets or any high priest of the old law, from the first down to the last of the line, be able to say to any of their hearers what Christ says today: 'Which of you shall convict me of sin?' Never could any teachers of the new law, from the apostles down to the last sovereign pontiff, dare to affirm 'I am without sin.' The very best of us have some frailties, some shortcomings, some blemishes, which tarnish and obscure the mirror of the soul. Christ alone has no apologies to make. He alone is above reproach. No matter how fast we run on the path of Christian perfection, he is ever before us urging us on to the goal of victory. No matter how high we may soar into the regions of spiritual light, he is still hovering above us, inviting us to ascend higher. Make yourselves familiar with the words and deeds of your Master by the frequent perusal of the Gospels. The Gospels contain the best narrative of Christ because they are inspired, and are not diluted by human speculation. Christ will be your light in darkness, he will be your companion in solitude, your rest in weariness of spirit. He will be your teacher in doubt, your physician in sickness of heart, your strength in weakness, your joy and consolation in sorrow and affliction. He will be your life in death."

Assessment Law Upheld.

In the Law and Equity Court of Richmond Saturday, Judge Ingram handed down a far-reaching decision in the suit of Charles E. Whitlock and others vs.
O. A. Hawkins, commissioners of revenue. This is one branch of the litigation attacking the recent land assessments throughout the State. Should the complainants win their point, the most serious complication will follow in every part of the Commonwealth. Judge Ingram refused the injunction, which was sought as a medium for checking the work of the commissioner under the new assessment figures. The complainants attacked both the legislative act of December 10, 1903, which provided for the assessment of 1905, and also the curative act approved March 17, 1906, which sought to validate assessments and other acts done under the first mentioned statute. It was also contended that the law authorizing the new levy lacked a constitutional vote. The case will be later passed upon by the Court of Appeals. A special session for the purpose will be held this morning.

A Young Mother of 70.

"My mother has suddenly been made young at 70. Twenty years of intense suffering from dyspepsia had entirely disabled her, until six months ago, when she began taking Electric restored the strength and activity she had in the prime of life," writes Mrs. W. L. Gil-patrick, of Danforth, Me. Greatest restorative medicine on the globe. Stomach, Liver Charged with Inciting Incendiarism.

A sensation developed in Norfolk yesterday in the trial of the cases against the alleged gang of firebugs who have operated in Norfolk county. It was brought out by the Commonwealth that "Bud" Savage, in his confession made the day of his arrest, said that "Ben" Long, a well-known saloonkeeper, gave him, William Turner and James Ryder whisky to drink if they would go out and start the fires. The witnesses who made this statement were Deputy Sheriff Huybert and Detective Adkins.
Counsel for the three men objected to the statement, on the ground that it was not admissible under the law. His objection was overruled, however, by Magistrate Peed, who forced the witnesses to state the name of the person who Savage had said gave him and the other two men whisky. The accused were held for the grand jury. No further arrests have been made.

Clean up and get ready for spring. Take a few Early Risers. These famous little pills cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels and give the blood a chance to purify itself. They relieve headache, hallow complexion, etc.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best and Most Popular.

"Mothers buy it for croupy children, railroad men buy it for severe coughs and elderly people buy it for la grippe," says Moore Bros., Eldon, Iowa. "We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than any other kind. It seems to have taken the lead over several other good brands." There is no question but this medicine is the best that can be procured for coughs and colds, whether it be a child or an adult that is afflicted.
It always cures and cures quickly. Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F.
Creighton & Co.
